Groups Praying for Children with Special Needs

The mission of Moms in Prayer International, an interdenominational prayer ministry previously named Moms In Touch, is to impact children and schools worldwide for Christ by gathering mothers to pray regularly (weekly is optimal). Moms who have children with special needs often pray in Traditional or Church-based Groups. However, for mothers who wish to pray specifically with those who understand the uniqueness of raising a child with special needs, they can form a Children with Special Needs Group. The children can attend the same school or different schools. However, when registering as a Special Needs Group, please include all schools being prayed for.

Helpful suggestions

The Prayer Sheet is a valuable tool to use during the time of prayer. Partially filled-in Prayer Sheets are available under Leaders Corner at www.MomsInPrayer.org. During the intercession time, please consider the following:

- Have each member choose one child to pray for that week.
- Divide into smaller groups of twos or threes if the size of the group allows.
- During the School Concerns time, pray for the academic programs for children with disabilities.
