

MITI nationwide bridge call in Spanish

For the first time ever, MITI will host a bridge call to bring Spanish-speaking women throughout the USA together at one time. The nationwide bridge call in Spanish will be led by Minnesota Hispanic liaison Gisela Schramm-Nagel.

Date: Saturday, May 12, 2007

Time: 10:00 a.m. CST

Audience: Any Spanish-speaking women interested in MITI. They don't have to be leaders or even involved.

Purpose: An opportunity for Spanish-speaking women across the country to connect, share their experiences/interest in MITI, and learn about Spanish resources.

Calling Directions:

Call the long distance phone number below, then enter the access code (when prompted). Once you are in, you may hear music for a few minutes, but if you do not hear others speaking within a few minutes, hang up and try again. If you have a speaker on your phone, you could invite many to your home and put it on speaker phone.

Phone #: (563)843-7429

Access code: 1040769# (note: ATT/Cingular cell phones will block this number)
